

Boycott Ollie's Restaurant and Grill

Tsu Yue Wang, the owner of Ollie's Restaurant and Grill, Inc.:

- Paid workers less than $2 / hour.
- Forced workers to work 12 hours/ day, no break.

And when they spoke out against these conditions...

- Didn't allow sick time off for workers.
- Repeatedly cursed at and discriminated against workers who stood up.
- Cut workers' hours and wages.
- Threatened to close the restaurant.
- Demoted and fired workers

Even though Tsu Yue Wang makes over $3 million a month from his restaurants alone, he has refused to pay his workers any of their stolen wages. Restaurant and real estate tycoon Tsu Yue Wang owns four Ollie's Restaurant and is a shareholder in at least eight other restaurants along Broadway in the Upper West Side. Wang is an international real estate tycoon with properties not only in New York, but also in Shanghai, China. Tsu Yue Wang has not only refused to resolve this labor dispute, but owners continue to retaliate against and blacklist workers who stand up against such sweatshop conditions. We say enough if enough!

WE WANT JUSTICE NOW! JOIN US TO DEMAND THAT OLLIE'S MUST:

- 1) Stop the retaliation and discrimination
- 2) Pay workers their stolen wages

Justice Will Be Served! (JWBS) is a campaign that unites restaurant, hotel, deli, and other service workers in different communities across New York to fight against long hours, second-class wages, stolen tips & other sweatshop conditions.
